CONTENTMENT.

"MAN WANTS BUT LITTLE HERE BELOW."

Little I ask; my wants are few
I only wish a hut of stone,
(A very plain brown stone will do,)
That I may call my own;—
And close at hand is such a one,
In yonder street that fronts the sun.

Plain food is quite enough for me;
Three courses are as good as ten;—
If Nature can subsist on three,
Thank Heaven for three. Amen!
I always thought cold victual nice;
My choice would be vanilla-ice.

I care not much for gold or land;—
Give me a mortgage here and there,—
Some good bank-stock,—some note of hand,
Or trifling railroad share;—
I only ask that Fortune send
A little more than I shall spend.

Honors are silly toys, I know,
And titles are but empty names;—
I would perhaps be Plenipo—
But only near St. James;—
I'm very sure I should not care
To fill our Gubernator's chair.

Jewels are baubles; 'tis a sin
To care for such unfruitful things:—
One good-sized diamond in a pin,—
Some, not large, in rings,—
A ruby, and a pearl, or so,
Will do for me;—I laugh at show.

My dame should dress in cheap attire;
(Good heavy silks are never dear;)
I own perhaps I might desire
Some shawls of true cashmere,—
Some in arrowy crapes of China silk,
Like wrinkled skins on scalded milk.

I would not have the horse I drive
So fast that folks must stop and stare;
An easy gait—two, forty-five—
Suits me; I do not care;—
Perhaps, for just a single spurt,
Some seconds less would do no hurt.

Of pictures, I should like to own
Titians and Raphaels three or four,—
I love so much their style and tone,—
One Turner, and no more
(A landscape,—foreground golden dirt;
The sunshine painted with a squirt.)

Of books but few,—some fifty score
For daily use and bound for wear;
The rest upon an upper floor;—
Some little luxury there
Of red morocco's gilded gleam,
And vellum rich as country cream.

Busts, cameos, gems,—such things as these,
Which others often show for pride,
I value for their power to please,
And selfish churls deride;—
One Stradivarius, I confess,
Two Meerschaums, I would fain possess.

Wealth's wasteful tricks I will not learn,
Nor ape the glittering upstart fool;—
Shall not carved tables serve my turn,
But all must be of buhl?
Give grasping pomp its double share,—
I ask but one recumbent chair.

Thus humble let me live and die,
Nor long for Midas' golden touch;
If Heaven more glorious gifts deny,
I shall not miss them much,—
Too grateful for the blessing lent
Of simple tastes and mind content!

"REQUIESCAT IN PACE."

BY LILLIAN HOPE.

Sighs, and moans, and bitter weeping,
For the silent, dreamless dead;
Place fair flowers 'round the sleeper,
Strew green branches o'er his bed.
Point with nerveless, drooping finger
To that home beneath the sod,
But remember, while you linger,
That the spirit is with God.
Dear one, though they weep for thee,
Requiescat in pace.

Suns will rise and set above thee,
Wild winds wander o'er thy tomb;
To the hearts of those that love thee,
Winter's storm or Summer's bloom
Ne'er can bring surcease of mourning;
They will bend above thy grave
Till the wondering moon behold them,
And the stars rise o'er the wave.
From their sorrow thou art free;
Requiescat in pace.

Unavailing tears their portion,
Day by day, and night by night
Clouds are 'round about, above them,
They behold no gleams of light.
Thou hast chastened them, "Our Father,"
Slain their "well-beloved Son,"
Aid them in their grief to murmur,
"Thy will, not our own, be done."
Loved one! may they say for thee,
Requiescat in pace.

RELIGION.

How dark and dreary earth would be
Without religion's power;
"A vale of tears," a desert plain—
A waste without a flower.

She's a bright seraph, pure and fair,
In mercy sent from Heaven,
To soothe and heal the wounded heart,
By sin and sorrow riven.

In sickness and in deep distress,
She lends her soothing power;
She gently calms the troubled soul,
And brightens every hour.

She throws a beam of Heavenly light
Upon the opening tomb,
And points the soul to world on high,
Her blest eternal home.

Make then her peaceful paths your choice,
And you will be secure;
In life, in death, in Heaven above,
You'll find her comforts sure.

A LOVING HEART.

Give me a loving heart!
To cheer me on my way,
Thro' this dark world of sin and pain,
To one of endless day.
For nought can calm the troubled breast,
Or holler balm impart,
To the life-weary pilgrim here,
Than one true loving heart!

Select Miscellany.

CURIOSITY IMPROVED.

The Persian Ambassador found himself annoyed when in France by the insatiable curiosity of the fair Parisians, who came to his residence avowedly "to look at him," that, at last, he resolved to revenge himself by the following little scheme:—

On returning one day from a ride, and finding, as usual, his apartments crowded by ladies, he affected to be charmed with the sight of them, successively pointing to each with his finger, and speaking with earnestness to his interpreter, who he well knew would be afterwards closely questioned as to the purport of his remarks. Accordingly, the eldst of the ladies, who, in spite of age, probably thought herself the most striking of the whole party, and whose curiosity was particularly excited, after his excellency had passed through the suite of rooms, coolly inquired what might have been the object of his examination.

"Madam," replied the interpreter, "I dare not inform you."

"But I wish particularly to know, sir."

"Indeed, madam, it is impossible."

"Nay, sir, this reserve is vexatious—I desire to know."

"Oh, since you insist, madam—know then that his excellency has been valuing you."

"Valuing us! how, sir?"

"Yes, ladies—his excellency, after the custom of his country, has been setting a price upon each of you."

"Well, that's whimsical enough; and how much may that lady we worth, according to his estimation?"

"A thousand crowns."

"And the other?"

"Five hundred crowns."

"And that young lady with fair hair?"

"Three hundred crowns."

"And that brunette?"

"The same price."

"And that lady who is painted?"

"Fifty crowns."

"And pray, sir, what may I worth in the tariff of his excellency's good graces?"

"Oh, madam, you really must excuse me; I beg—

"Come, come, no concealments."

"The prince merely said, as he passed you—"

"Well, what did he say?"

"He said, madam, that he did not know the small coin of the country."

"I WISH I HAD CAPITAL."

This was the exclamation of a stout, hearty, but lazy young man, the other day.

Now, suppose you had a capital—what would you do with it? Let me tell you, you have capital. Haven't you got hands and feet, body, muscle, bone and brains, and don't you call them capital? Oh, but they are not money, says you. But they are more than money. If you will use them they will make money, and nobody can take them from you. Don't you know how to use them? If you don't it's time you were learning. Take hold of the first plow or hoe, or jack-plane, or broad axe that you can find and go to work. Your capital will soon yield you a large interest. Aye, but there's the rub; you don't want to work; you want money on credit that you may play the gentleman and speculate, and end by playing the vagabond—for you want a plantation and negroes that you may hire an overseer to attend to it, while you run about over the country and dissipate and get into debt; or you want to marry some very rich girl, who would be foolish enough to take you for your fine clothes and good looks, that she may support you.

Shame upon you, young man! Go to work with the capital you have; you'll soon make interest upon it, and with it to give you as much money as you want, and make you feel like a man. If you can't make money upon what capital you now have, you couldn't do it if you had a million of dollars in money. If you do not know how to use bone, muscle and brains, you would not know to use gold. If you let the capital you have lie idle, waste and rot out, it would be the very same thing with you if you had gold; you would only know how to waste it.

Then don't stand about like a great helpless child, waiting for somebody to come and feed you, but go to work. Take the first work you can find, no matter what it is, so that you be sure to do it like Billy Gray did his drumming—well. Yes, manage the capital you already have—you will soon have plenty more to manage. If you can't or won't manage the capital God has given you, you will never have any more to manage. Do you hear?

☞ An old gentleman of eighty-four having taken to the alter a young lady of sixteen the clergyman said to him:

"You will find the fount at the opposite end of the church."

"I beg your pardon," said the clerical wit, "I thought you had brought this child to be christened."

Misquotations from Scripture.

"God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb." From Sterne's Sentimental Journey to Italy. Compare Isaiah xxvii. 8.

"In the midst of life we are in death." From the Burial Service; and this originally, from a hymn of Luther.

"Bread and wine which the Lord hath commanded to be received." From the English Catechism.

"Not to be wise above what is written." Not in Scripture.

That the Spirit would go from heart to heart as oil from vessel to vessel." Not in Scripture.

"The merciful man is merciful to his beast." The scriptural form is, "A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast." Prov. xii. 10.

"A nation shall be born in a day." In Isaiah it reads, "Shall a nation be borne at ence?" Lxvi. 8.

"As iron sharpeneth iron, so doth a man the countenance of his friend." "Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." Prov. xxvii. 17.

"That he who runs may read." "That he may run that readeth."—Hab. ii. 2.

"Owe no man anything but love."—"Owe no man anything, but to love one another."—Rom. xiii. 8.

"Prone to sin as the sparks fly upward." "Born to trouble as the sparks fly upward."—v. 7.

"Exalted to heaven in point of privilege." Not in the Bible.

Eve was not Adam's helpmate, but merely a help meet for him; nor was Absalom's long hair, of which he was so proud the instrument of his destruction; his head, and not the hair upon it, having been caught in boughs of the tree. (2 Samuel, xviii. 8.)

WILLIAM PENN'S DEED.—This indenture witness, that Packenah, Jarekhan, Silkhals, Part Quesot, Jervis, Essepenauk, Felktroy, Hekellappa, Econus, Machloha, Metheonga, Wissa, Powey, Sachemakers, right owners of all the lands from Quingus, called Duck Creek, unto Upland, called Chester Creek, all along by the west side of the Delaware river, and so between the creeks backward as far as a man can ride in two days with a horse, for, and in consideration of these following goods to us in hand paid, and secured to be paid by William Penn, proprietor and Governor of the province of Pennsylvania and territories thereoff, viz:—20 guns, 20 fathoms stroud water, 20 blankets, 20 kettles, 20 lbs. powder, 100 bars lead, 40 tomahawks, 100 knives, 40 pairs stockings, 1 barrel beer, 20 pounds red lead, 100 fathoms wampum, 30 glass bottles, 30 pewter spoons, 100 awl blades, 300 tobacco pipes, 100 hands of tobacco, 20 tobacco thogs, 20 steels, 300 flints, 30 pairs of scissors, 30 combs, 60 looking-glasses, 200 needles, 1 skipple of salt, 30 pounds of sugar, 5 gallons of molasses, 20 tobacco boxes, 100 jewsharps, 20 hoes, 20 gimblets, 35 wooden screw boxes, 100 strings of beads, do hereby acknowledge, etc., at New Castle, 2d day of the eighth month, 1685.

The above is a true copy taken from the original by Ephraim Morton, formerly a clerk in the Land Office.

PARAGRAPH ON MATRIMONY.—Choosing a wife is a perilous piece of business. Do you suppose there is nothing of it but evening visits, boquets, and popping the question? My dear simple young man, you ought not be trusted out by yourself alone. Take care that you don't get the gilt China article, that looks exceedingly well on the mantle piece until the gilt and ornaments are all rubbed off, and then it is fit only for the dust pile. A wife should be selected on the same principle as a calico gown. Bright colors and gay patterns are not always the best economy. Get something that will wash and wear.—Nothing like the sun and showers of matrimony to bleach out these deceptive externals. Don't choose the treasure by gas light or in a parlor sitting. Broad daylight is the best time—a kitchen the most sensible place. Bear in mind, sir, that the article bargained for can't be exchanged if it don't suit, If you buy a watch and it don't run as you expected, you can send it to a jeweler to be repaired; in the case of a wife, once paired, you cannot repair. She may run in the wrong direction—very well, sir, all that is left for you is to run after her, and an interesting chase you will probably find it. If you get a good wife, you will be the happiest fellow alive; if you get a bad one, you may as well soll yourself for two and sixpence at once! Just consider all these things beforehand, young man!

☞ A French engineer was traveling upon an Ohio river steamboat. He remarked to the captain:

"Your engine is in very poor condition, sir."

"That's so," said the captain.

"And how long do you expect it will run?"

"Till it bursts," was the cool reply.

At the next good landing-place there was at least one Frenchman less on the boat.

ELOQUENCE AT A PREMIUM.—"May it please the Court," said a Yankee lawyer, before a Dutch Justice the other day, "this is a case of the greatest importance. While the American Eagle, whose sleepless eye watches over the welfare of this mighty republic, and whose wings extend from the Alleghanies to the Rocky Chain of the West, was rejoicing in his pride of place"——

"Shtop dare! shtop dare, I say! vat has dis suit to do mit eagles. Dis has notin to do mit de wild bird. It is von sheep," exclaimed the Justice.

"True, your honor; but my client has rights here"——

"Ye's glient has no right to de eagle!"

"Of course not, but by the laws of language"——

"Vat cares I for de laws of language. I undeashtant de laws of de State, and dat ish enough for me. Confiney our talk ta de case."

"Well, then, my client, the defendant in this case, is charged with stealing sheep, and"——

"Dat will do! dat will do! Your glient is charged mit shtealing a sheep, just nine shillin. De gourt will adjourn to Charley Peter's to drink!"

A GREAT RIVER FROM A LITTLE RILL—A Welsh minister asked a little girl for the text of his last sermon. The child gave no answer—she only wept. He ascertained that she had no Bible in which to look for the text. And this led him to inquire whether her parents and neighbors had a Bible; and this led to that meeting in London, in 1804, of a few devoted Christians, to devise means to supply the poor in Wales with the Bible, the grand issue of which was the formation of the British and Foreign Bible Society—a society which has already distributed more than 15,000,000 copies of the Bible, its issues now reaching nearly 1,500,000 annually. And this, in turn, led to the formation of the American Bible Society, and to the whole beautiful cluster of sister institututions throughout the world, which are so many trees of life, scattering the golden fruits of immortality among all nations of the earth. This mighty river, so deep, so broad, so far reaching in its many branches, we may trace back to the tears of that little girl. "Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth!"

THE SAILOR'S LETTER.—A sailor, in writing to his mother, gave the following account of a storm:—"We have been driven in the Bay of Funday by a pampoosa right in the teeth. It blowed great guns, and we carried away the bowsprit; a heavy sea washed overboard the binnacle and companion; the captain lost his quadrant and could not take an observation for fifteen days; at last we arrived safe at Halifax!"

The old woman, who could not read herself, got a neighbor to repeat it to her three or four times, until she thought she had got it by heart; she then sallied out to tell the story.

"Oh, my poor son."

"Why, what's the matter—he's not lost?" inquired a sympathizing friend.

"O, thank God, he's safe, but he has been driven into the Bay of Firmament by a bamboozle right in the teeth—it blowed great guns, and they carried away the pulpit—a heavy sea washed overboard the pinnacle of the tabernacle—the captain lost his conjuration, and couldn't get any salvation for fifteen days—at last they arrived at Hallelujah."

TIME REQUIRED TO COUNT A BILLION.—This is a million times a million, which no one is able to count, however easy it may be to write it. You can count 160 to 170 a minute; let us even suppose you can go as far as 200 in a minute, then an hour will produce 12,000, a day 28,000 and a year (or 365 days—for every four years you may rest a day from counting, during leap year,) 105,120,000. Supposing that Adam, at the beginning of his existence, had begun to count and continued to do so, and was counting still, he would not even now, according to the usual supposed age of our globe, have counted nearly enough. For to count a billion, he would require 9,512 years, 34 days, 5 hours and 20 minutes.

THE AMERICAN MILLIONAIRE.—Mr. Wm. B. Astor is worth at least $25,000,000, and every cent of the income, over and above expenses and charities, is immediately reinvested. Mr. A. is still a hale and hearty man, and will probably live to be as old as his father. He has an office, where he works harder than a dry goods clerk. Six or seven gentlemen act as book keepers, but he holds the thread of the complicated skein in his own hands. And yet such are the peculiar phases in the history of men's lives, he will leave this gay world and all these great possessions, the temporary owner of a plat of ground only six feet by three!—that's all he gets for his trouble.

☞ There is said to be an old lady down on Long Island so very fat that the neighbors use her saddle for griddle greasing. To keep her from slipping out of bed her husband rolls her in ashes. Long Island is a great place.

A BAD CHARACTER.—We always were aware of the importance of having a good reputation for truth and honesty, but we have met with nothing lately so well calculated to impress the advantages of having a bad character upon the mind, as the following anecdote:—

A mortal fever prevailed on board a ship at sea, and a negro man was appointed to throw the bodies of those who died, from time to time, into the sea. One day, when the captain was on deck, he saw the negro dragging out of the forecastle a sick man, who was struggling violently to extricate himself from the negro's grasp, and remonstrating very bitterly against the cruelty of being buried alive.

"What are you going to do with that man, you black rascal?" said the captain.

"Going to throw him overboard, massa, 'cause he's dead."

"Dead! you scoundrel," said the captain; "don't you see he moves and even speaks?"

"Yes, massa, I know he says he not dead, but he always lie so, nobody never know what to believe him!"

MUSIC.—There is something very wonderful in music. Words are wonderful enough, but music is even more wonderful. It speaks not to our thoughts as words do; it speaks straight to our hearts and spirits—to the very core and root of our souls. Music soothes us, stirs us up; it puts noble feelings into us; it melts us to tears, we know not how; it is a language by itself, just as divine, just as blessed. Music, I say, without words, is wonderful and blessed—one of God's best gifts to man. But in singing you have both the wonders together—music and words. Singing speaks at once to the head and to the heart, to our understanding and our feelings, and therefore, perhaps the most beautiful way in which the reasonable soul of man can show itself (except of course doing right, which always is and always will be, the same beautiful thing, is singing.

☞ A wag thus plays upon the names of some of the United States Senators:—

A Senator of metal—Bell.
A shining Senator—Bright.
A verdant Senator—Green.
A greasy Senator—Chandler.
A depillious Senator—Wigfall.
A lazy Senator—Doolittle.
A healthy Senator—Hale.
A grave Senator—Toombs.
A royal Senator—King.
A brick of a Senator—Mason.
Sporting Senators—Hunter and Chase.
A pious Senator—Pugh.
A provisional Senator—Rice.
A colored Senator—Brown.
A blustering Senator—Bragg.
A lowly Senator—Foot.
An old "salt"—Seward.
A hard nut for Sumner to crack—Chestnut.

☞ In one of the Ohio districts a man taking the census arrived at a farm-house, and, in the absence of the men, proceeded to ask questions of the ladies.

"Ladies, how many male cows have you?"

"We have no male cows," replied one young lady—a sweet, ethereal creature of some two hundred pounds weight—"but we have a gentleman bull calf!"

The census taker put it down.

☞ An aged woman who was not accustomed to attend church, went one Sunday. During prayer time, while she was on her knees, her old cat, who had followed her unnoticed, came purring round her, when she broke out with:

"Why, poosy; what, you come ter the meetin' tu! hy-ee! I spoke out in meetin. Why-ee-ee! I spoke out again! Why-ee, loddy-goddy! I keep a spoking all the time!"

☞ Bowed knees and beautiful words cannot make prayer; but earnest desires from a heart bowed by love, inspired by God's Holy Spirit, and thirsting for God, the living God, will do it, anywhere, or in any place, or at any time.

☞ To win a soul is your noblest prize, and the greater number you win, the greater and richer will be that "crown of rejoicing," which you will wear in the day of the Lord.

☞ In France only one traveler is killed out of every two nations of passengers on the railroads, and only one wounded in every 500,000.

☞ Every pound of cochineal contains 70,000 insects, boiled to death; 700,000 pounds are annually used for crimson and scarlet dyes.

☞ Keep your store of smiles and kindnest thoughts for home; give to the world only those which are to spare.

☞ Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Where advertisements are accompanied with the money, whether one, five or ten dollars, we will give the advertiser the full benefit of cash rates.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO.,

Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for the Altoona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

☞ The Democracy of Cambria held their County Convention on the 9th inst., and succeeded in making a split about equal to that of Baltimore. The Douglas wing of the party had the majority and they dealt rather unceremoniously with their opponents. Some 15 or 18 of the delegates seceded from the convention.—Those who remained nominated George Nelson Smith, of the Johnstown Echo, for Assembly, and James Griffin for Register and Recorder. A resolution was offered endorsing the action of the State Central Committee proposing a Union electoral ticket, which was not adopted. Another resolution was offered requiring the candidate for Assembly to give a pledge that if elected he would oppose the repeal of the three mill tonnage tax, which motion was also rejected. The Democrat and Sentinel, a Breckenridge paper, in an editorial on the Convention says:

> We place ourselves in an antagonistical position to the ticket nominated, and bid defiance to any earthly arm that would drive us from our position.

The Mountaineer and Echo, Douglas papers, support the ticket.

THE GREAT EASTERN.—The troubles of the proprietors of the Great Eastern steamship, now lying at New York, appear to be increasing. It is reported that the Grand Trunk Railway Company intend sueing the Directors of the Great Eastern for breach of contract. The agreement to bring the ship to the Eastern terminus of the Grand Trunk was specific, and on the faith of it the Railway Company made a large outlay for harbor accommodations at Portland. The council of that city also expended some $60,000, and an immense amount of capital was invested by private citizens. The newspapers of Portland and Canada are urging the Railroad Company to prosecute. It is reported that the Great Eastern will make an excusion trip to Cape May and Philadelphia, in the course of a month or so. Hope the report may prove correct.

☞ Heenan, the great, arrived in New York on Saturday last, but according to the Tribune, the reception he received was far from being as grand as was his departure. The fact is, the excitement occasioned by his late contest in Europe has died away, and those who would have swelled the throng to meet him at the wharves had he returned immediately after his fight with Sayers, would not now make one of such an assemblage. The sober, second thought, always gives men right views of such subjects, and that which they would do in a moment of excitement they would feel ashamed to do afterwards. The glory acquired by Heenan, like all glories of the kind, is short-lived. It is right that it should be so.

THE FARMER AND GARDENER.—This valuable work appears this month in a new and much more convenient form than heretofore, and is now a decidedly neat publication. The July number contains many useful articles, which should be read by every farmer and gardener. The agricultural department is under the control of A. M. Spangler, and the horticultural department under the care of Wm. Saunders. The low price at which it is published; $1,00 per annum, places it within the reach of the class for whom it is intended. Published at Philadelphia by A. M. Spangler.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for August is before us, with a beautiful frontispiece entitled "The Summer Time," a handsome selection of Fashion plates, and any amount of patterns for needle work, &c. The literary selections are equal to any of previous numbers, as Peterson never goes backward. Every lady should have it.—Price $2 per annum. Address C. J. Peterson, Philadelphia.

MANSION HOUSE, PITTSBURG.—While on a visit to the Smoky City, a few weeks since, we put up at the above named house, kept by Ed. P. Aurantz. This house is situated at the depot of the Penn's Rail Road, and passengers can almost step from the cars into the house. Mr. Aurantz is one of the most accommodating hosts we ever met, and made us feel as much at home as it is possible for a man to feel, outside of his own house. Those of our citizens who visit Pittsburg will find this not only a convenient, but one of the most orderly and agreeable stopping places in the city; and if they put up there once they will be sure to call again.

☞ The Methodist is the title of a new religious paper just started in New York City under the editorial control of Drs. Crooks and McClintock, and published by Lemuel Bangs. As its name indicates, it is intended principally for the edification and benefit of the Methodist portion of the community. The number before us is an exceedingly neat specimen of typography. It is put up in double sheet form, which is much more convenient than the old form of large papers. That it is edited with ability, the names of the editors fully insure. Price $2,00 per annum.

☞ The Blair County Whig is in error in stating that a paper to be called the Blair County American is shortly to be issued from this office. We never said so, as the Whig asserts, nor have we anything whatever to do with the publication of the American. The projectors of that sheet have rented a room in the same building with us, but they are not in our office any more than the Whig's next door neighbor is in his office. Will you correct, Major? "Every tub should stand on its own bottom."

☞ The Tyrone Star shines again, having made its appearance on Saturday last. It comes out flat-footed for Bell, Everett and Curtin, but ignores the county ticket without giving a reason. In his first editorial, friend Jolly promises to indite a hymn of sorrow to those who sang pæans of rejoicing over his editorial grave. Should the Blair County American see the light, we shall then have six papers in "little Blair," enough in all conscience to enlighten the inhabitants.

☞ Godey for August reached us in advance of all cotemporaries, and is in point of attraction as in publication, ahead of all opposition. This number contains an elegant steel engraving, a good wood cut, a highly colored fashion-plate, and some 67 patterns of different styles of needle work. No other work contains so many attractions for ladies. Price $3 per annum. L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

☞ Major Jesse R. Crawford, the elector from this district, on the Democratic Electoral Ticket, has written a letter to the Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, announcing his determination to support Douglas, considering him the regular nominee of the party, and refusing all association with the Breckenridge party of the State.

Letter from Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 14th, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The city at this season of the year affords very little to interest one in search of material for the press. This being the season for the annual exodus of that vague and inexplicable thing called in fashionable parlance Society, all matters of interest, as well as points of attraction are supposed to be transferred for the nonce, to the seaboard, and the various watering places of celebrity.

The great Japanese pageant, with its semi-barbarian costumes and regal paraphernalia, has passed from our vision, and we contemplate it now with as little concern as we do the rockets that exploded to do it honor. The "Glorious Fourth" too, has passed with its usual accompaniament of casualties, fights, explosions and pyrotechnic displays. Even the Great Eastern, with its huge proportions moored at a point so convenient of access, is already looked upon as an exploded sensation. Everything is flat and stale, and general lethargy pervades everything excepting that veritable institution denominated Society, which is agitated just now from centre to circumference. The season is here when it is made a forfeiture of caste and an everlasting disgrace to be found in the city. The Smiths and Joneses are making superhuman exertions; porters and cabmen are dispatching the luggage and superintending the embarkation of the fashionable birds of passage. The dust is fast accumulating on the imposing fronts of now deserted mansions in the aristocratic localities of the city.

The crush of crinoline and flaunt of Brocade have ceased on the promenade and in the fashionable Churches. Sensation sermons are no longer announced in the trumpet columns of the secular press, such preachers having all gone with their exclusive flocks to air their dignity in the country, or to wash the dust and film from their haughty crests in the briny waves of the old ocean. The thoroughfares of traffic are converted into miniature "Sleepy Hollows" with any number of Rip Van Winkles on the soft side of store boxes. The places which were wont to resound with the clink of specie, and the arbitrary phrase of cent per cent, have been transformed into places for the interchange of fraternal sentiments, and sometimes the excited political controversy. There I almost unconsciously I have been led into politics, just now the only absorbing theme with us. Every night, large and enthusiastic meetings, if we are to believe the reports of those interested, are held in different portions of the city; all I presume, equally ardent in the cause, and as equally hopeful of success. All are profuse in promises, as they are in transparencies, political devices, and the lurid blaze of red, white and blue fires. Designing demagogues too often thus lead captive the reason while they appeal to passion and excite enthusiasm.

It cannot be disguised that the disruption of the democratic party has given a powerful impulse to the Bell and Everett cause. Thousands of anti-Douglas men, seeing no chance for the success of Breckenridge and Lane, will vote Bell and Everett. The knowing ones predict that they will carry almost every Southern State, and the prospect of a Union between that party and the Douglas democracy in New York, makes the defeat of Lincoln and Hamlin almost a certainty. There are other influences at work which will tell against the Republican ticket in all conservative States. It is known that Seward was sacrificed at Chicago, in order to appease this conservative sentiment. But the record of Mr. Lincoln shows him to be more ultra than Seward, without his ability or statesman ship. Indeed Mr. Lincoln first promulgated the doctrine of the "irrepressible conflict," the advocacy of which so damaged the fortunes of Mr. Seward. Besides, Mr. Sumner the author of the "Sacred Animosity" doctrine, is stumping for the Republicans and distributing his speech over the country. If we realize but the one thousandth part of the good promised us by these professional politicians in case they are successful, we will be the happiest people this side of Paradise.

An agent from the Great Eastern has been on here to ascertain whether the Delaware is navigable for ships of that capacity, it is therefore probable that the "Big Ship" will e're long be moored at our wharves.

The weather here thus far this summer has been pleasant, and excepting a few hot days, has been unusually cool. I confess a strong predilection for the shady dells and the limpid streams of the mountains, and when I inhale the dust kicked up by the passage of numberless vehicles, it is then that I long for the seclusion of your mountain home, where Heaven's free air can play with your locks, bathe your fevered brow, and whisper its soothing melody to your spirits, untainted by the devices of men. We have much beautiful scenery in the vicinity of Philadelphia. The Schuylkill with its green and sometimes rocky bluffs has a charm of romantic wildness, which is a favorable contrast with the low sandy banks of the Delaware.—But mountains in my estimation are indispensible to the beauty of a landscape. They bound its perspective, relieve its monotony, afford landmarks for the eye, and are so potent in their influence on local attachment, that the mountains we have known in our youth, still from landmarks in the recollections of maturer years.

☞ About being finished—the new drug store put up by G. W. Kessler.

☞ On a high—the chaps who put up the lightning rod on one of the high stacks, last week.

☞ If you buy what you have no occasion for, you will soon have to sell what you cannot spare.

☞ Hon. John Sherman has been unanimously nominated for re-election to Congress by his own constituents.

☞ Neighbor Plack, across the way, is about erecting a building on the lot between his store and dwelling.

☞ In 1850 the town of Patterson contained 00 inhabitants—in 1860 it contains 519. The greatest increase yet reported.

☞ A lady, sixty years of age, eloped from Buffalo with a black driver, arrived in Albany, was arrested and sent back again.

☞ The damage occasioned by ho bombardment of Palermo is estimated by the journals of that place at more than 20,000,000 of ounces—£10,320,000.

☞ The three candidates for Governor of Arkansas are Thomas Hubbard, Richard H. Johnson, and Henry M. Rector—"Tom, Dick and Harry."

☞ J. Edgar Thomson announces that he has concluded a contract for the graduation and laying of fifty miles of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

☞ Hon. Francis P. Blair was, on Monday last, re-nominated by acclamation, by the Republicans of the First District, for Representative to Congress from Missouri.

☞ The Huntingdon Journal and American and Shirleysburg Herald are likely to have a little editorial scrimmage. Keep cool, gentlemen, the weather is a leetle too hot for high words at present.

☞ The old log school-house in Winchester, Illinois, in which Judge Douglas taught school about thirty years ago, is about to be adopted as a political emblem. It is fully equal to Lincoln rails, at least.

☞ A party of Pike's Peaker's, returned to Chicago, state that, by actual count and record, they met 5,488 teams on the road between Denver City and Fort Kearney, and 1,500 more between Fort Kearney and Omaha City, making a total of 6,988 teams on the road, and all going west.

☞ The Chicago Democrat chronicles an important discovery which has recently been made in that vicinity. It says, a large quantity of "pruiri stone," near the western suburbs of that city, has been found to yield immense quantities of gas and saltpetre.

☞ A sheet of tissue paper has been exhibiting at Coylton, England. It mensures in length four miles, being 21,000 feet long, and is in breadth six feet three inches.—The weight is but 196 pounds. It was manufactured in twelve hours.

☞ The following answer to the over-curious about matters relating purely to God's own prerogatives would often be in place:—St. Augustine was once asked by some one, "What the Lord was doing before the creation of the world?" to which the great doctor replied: "Making a hell for inquisitive people."

☞ A girl, aged 14 years, the daughter of John Grove, of Jackson township, Cambria county, was bitten by a rattlesnake on the evening of the 4th of July, and, notwithstanding everything was done which could be suggested, she died on the sixth of July, after having suffered intense agony for two days.

☞ A clergyman in England, not long since, represented to the Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol that a brother clergyman was in the habit of preaching in unconsecrated buildings, and otherwise similarly violating the rules of the Church of England, to which the Bishop returned the unexpected, but doubtless wholesome reply: "Go thou and do likewise."

☞ Mr. George Hoover, of Brothersvalley township, Somerset county, lately visited a rattlesnake den, on the mountain, about two miles from his house. He despatched thirty-four of them—the shortest four feet in length, the longest five feet and a half. One of the largest had twenty-two rattles and a button upon his tail.—Mr. Hoover, who is a gentleman of veracity, says he could have killed a barrel of them but for the poisonous exhalations from the den.

The First Trip by a Locomotive on the Continent.

Major Horatio Allen, the engineer of the N. York and Erie Railroad, in a speech made during the recent festival occasion, gave the following account of the first trip made by a locomotive on this continent:

When was it? Who was it? And who awakened its energies and directed its movements? It was in the year 1828, on the banks of the Lackawaxen, at the commencement of the railroads connecting the canal of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company with their coal mines—and he who addresses you was the only person on that locomotive. The circumstances which led to my being alone on the engine were these: The road had been built in the summer; the structure was of hemlock timber, and rails of large dimensions notched on caps placed far apart. The timber had cracked and warped from exposure to the sun. After about 300 feet of straight line, the road crossed the Lackawaxen Creek on a trestle-work about 30 feet high, with a curve of 355 to 400 feet radius.—The impression was very general that the iron monster would either break down the road or it would leave the track at the curve and plunge into the creek. My reply to such apprehensions was that it was too late to consider the probability of such occurrences; there was no other course than to have a trial made of the strange annimal, which had been brought here at great expense; but that it was not necessary that more than one should be involved in its fate; that I would take the first ride alone, and the time would come when I should look back to the incident with great interest. As I placed my hand on the throttle-valve handle, I was undecided whether I would move slowly or with a fair degree of speed; but, believing that the road would prove safe, and preferring, if we did go down, to go handsomely, and without any evidence of timidity, I started with considerable velocity, passed the curve over the creek safely, and was soon out of hearing of the vast assemblage. At the end of two or three miles I reversed the valve and returned without accident, having thus made the first railroad trip by locomotive on the Western Hemisphere.

THE CAMBRIA IRON WORKS.—A writer in the North American, in describing the Cambria Iron Works, the most extensive of the kind in the country, says: "The entire establishment at present comprises nearly three thousand operatives, twenty-seven thousand acres of land, a rolling mill covering 83,375 square feet, sixty-four puddling furnaces, twelve heating furnaces, fourteen pair of rollers, twenty-nine steam engines, giving an aggregate of 2,500 horse power, two locomotives, a complete domestic market, including separate dry goods, grocery, feed, meat, shoe and tailoring establishments, one hundred and forty head of horses, a foundry, a draught and pattern making shop, wheelright and blacksmithing establishments, machine shops, powder-house, three hundred railway cars, etc. Last year 32,000 tons of railroad iron were turned out. The retail stores alone make sales amounting to $400,000 per annum. During the past year there have been slaughtered for the meat market 580 beeves, 600 head of sheep and 500 head of hogs. The mines are superintended by James Morley, one of the most thoroughly practical mining engineers in this country. He employs one thousand men and boys, eighty mules and horses, and fourteen miles of railway tunnelling. He keeps constantly on hand 120,000 tons of ore, with a corresponding amount of coal, and delivers to the clumping and roasting, and coaking masters, 455 tons of coal and 500 tons of ore per diem.

ALL FOR THE UNION.—Whatever diversity of opinion there may be among the four Presidential candidates as to slavery and the power of Congress over it, they all are united on one point—every one is in favor of the Union. The accepting speeches and letters of each of the candidates prove each man to be very sound on this question. Mr. Breckenridge says: "We intend to strengthen and lengthen the Union." Mr. Douglas says the "Union must be preserved," and through the Douglas party. Mr. Lincoln says he will "co-operate for the success of the principles declared by the Convention—the inviolability of the Constitution and perpetual Union." Mr. Bell says his efforts will be directed to the promotion of all the great objects for which the government was instituted, but more especially for the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union against all impairing influences and tendencies. Here are four distinguished gentlemen, representing every shade of political opinion in the country, all zealously devoted to the preservation of the Union. Under these assurances, the people must feel perfectly easy in their minds in regard to the future of the country, no matter how the election may turn. The fact that they all refer to the Union sentiment of the country proves that the Union is a little too strong yet for either of them to destroy, if they were so disposed.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.—Richard Madden, of Springfield township, this county, killed his wife, on Friday evening last, by striking her several blows on the head with a piece of the head of a hogshead; after which he dragged her under the porch of the house. A small son was the only human witness to the terrible deed and he said, "Pappa you have killed mother;" to which the father replied, "I know I have." He then left the house, and search being made for him the next morning, he was found in a corn field near by, having hung himself with a bridle. An inquest was held over both the dead bodies on Friday night and Saturday, and on Sunday they were both buried—Mrs. Madden in the Baptist grave yard, and the murderer under the tree upon which he had hung himself. No cause can be assigned for this terrible occurrence, unless we attribute it to insanity.—It is said that Madden, although a well doing, industrious man, has frequently exhibited symptoms of insanity; and it is probable that a fit of derangement having suddenly seized him, he unconsciously committed this horrid deed.—Hunt. Union, 11th inst.

PRIZE FIGHT IN PENNSYLVANIA.—On Saturday week a prize fight came off in the vicinity of Scranton, Pennsylvania. Two men, an Englishman and Welchman, contended for a purse of two hundred dollars. The fight commenced at 7 o'clock in the morning and lasted three hours; resulting in the defeat of the Welchman by his giving what the fancy term a "foul blow." One hundred and ninety-five rounds were fought. The men, we are informed, have been in training for the last two months, one at Pittsburgh and the other at Scranton, and the contemplated "mill" was kept very secret.—Both parties suffered severe punishment, one of them having been entirely blinded. Between one and two thousand spectators are represented to have been present. It is said that the origin of the match was a difficulty which occurred between the parties some time since about a woman.

☞ The Senators whose terms expire in 1861, and whose places are to be filled by the next Legislature of their States, are Fitzpatrick of Alabama, Johnson of Arkansas, Gwin of California, Foster of Connecticut, Yulee of Florida, Iverson of Georgia, Trumbull of Illinois, Fitch of Indiana, Harlan of Iowa, Crittenden of Kentucky, Slidell of Louisana, Pierce of Maryland, Greene of Missouri, Clark of New Hampshire, Seward of New York, Clingman of North Carolina, Pugh of Ohio, Lane of Oregon, Bigler of Pennsylvania, Hammond of South Carolina, Collamer of Vermont, and Durkee of Wisconsin 14 Democrats, 7 Republicans, and one American.

BURNED TO DEATH IN A BONFIRE.—A frightful accident occurred at Akron, Ohio, on the Fourth. A young man named Samuel O'Neil, carrying a barrel to the pile, which was already blazing with tar barrels and pine boxes, by accident fell headlong into the flames. He lay for some seconds in the midst of the fire, and came out, crawling on his hands and knees, with not a shread of raiment on him: "Kill me!" he shrieked; "for God's sake, kill me. Cut my throat—anything—only kill me!" After all the aid that medical or surgical skill could give had been rendered, he died the next morning, after suffering physical distress unspeakable. His sufferings were absolutely frightful; and produced the most painful effect on all that were present.

THE TORNADO.—The Iowa City Reporter has the following summary of the great storm:—

Hardin county—Killed, 7; wounded, 27; houses destroyed, 37; estimated loss, $75,000.

Linn county—Killed, 18; wounded, 35; houses destroyed, 12; estimated loss, $150,000.

Cedar county—Killed, 3; wounded, 13; houses destroyed, 8; estimated loss, $15,000.

Clinton County—Killed, 75; wounded, 150; estimated loss, $400,000.

Jones County.—Killed, 9; wounded, 30; houses destroyed, 18; estimated loss, $80,000.

Besides the above there is to be counted the loss of life and property at Albany and other places in Illinois.

AN ITEM FOR MOTHERS.—Drs. Behrend and Sieber recommend the medicinal use of sugar as a curative means of great value in Diarrhœa—one in a child aged four years—in which half an ounce of powdered white sugar given every hour, soon gave a favorable turn to symptoms of extreme gravity, which had long resisted all the ordinary means of cure. Other evidence of a similar character is promised, and it is believed that there are many conditions of diarrhœa, particularly in thoso in which there is a putrefactive tendency in the secretions, where sugar will, in all probability, prove a most valuable remedy.

TORNADO IN TENNESSEE.—A letter from Freedom, Tennessee, dated the 16th instant, says that during the continuance of the gust, the plowed earth was whirled through the air by car loads; a quanty of bar iron, at Hall's, was picked up and carried a quarter of a mile, and some of the bars, which were twisted round trees by the force of the wind had to be pried off with handspikes. In the barn of Mr. Day were two hundred bushels of wheat, which were carried off, and never heard of since. Sheep and stock were also seen away up in the air.

BEARDED WOMAN.—The Maysville (Ky.) Eagle gives an account of a bearded woman, residing in Lewis county, in the same State. It is said she had no indications of beard until last September, when the hair commenced growing upon her face, growing very fast sometines, as much as half an inch a week. She has now a heavy black beard, coarse like that of a man. A space of about an inch in width from the mouth, over her chin to her neck, is free from hair.

INPECTINE.

THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

For the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveller in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down the river Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, it has been tried with the happiest effect by several ladies and gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise.—This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague, and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use, on receipt of one dollar.

THE GREAT HOLLAND REMEDY

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.—Persons subject to nervous or sick headache, will find in Boerhave's Holland Bitters a sure, safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an effectual remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana, speaks much in its favor. See advertisement in another column.

☞ COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthrope philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing; let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician, concerning the virtues of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhœa, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hostetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific. Try the article and be satisfied.

☞ "OH THAT THE SKIN of an innocent sheep should be made into parchment, and written on to the undoing of a man!" quoth Shakspeare. He might also have deplored the ruining of men's forms by the uncouth manner in which some ungracious tailors butcher up the cloth made from the wool grown by those same harmless sheep. To see the perfection of the art of working up cloth wisely and well, and so as to set off to the best advantage the forms of its wearers, call at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut St. above Sixth, Phila. and examine their stock of garments for gentlemen and youths.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced nurse and female physician, has a soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by sotening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.

TOOTHACHE.

This disease can be cured by Dr. Keyser's Toothache Remedy, prepared by him in Pittsburg, Pa., which is put up in bottles and sold at 25 cents each. It is an excellent medicine, when diluted, for spongy and tender gums, and is worth ten times its price to all who need it. Sold here by G. W. Kessler, Druggist,

Proceedings of the Town Council.

ALTOONA, July 12th, 1860.

An adjourned meeting of Council held July, 12th, 1860. Members present, A. A. Smyth, D. F. Laughman, R. Greenwood, J. A. McDowell and Wm. C. McCormick, Chief Burgess.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Committee appointed on the subject of Weigh Scales, and weights and measures, reported progress, and were continued.

Chief Burgess reported that he had seen a majority of the members of the board of health personally, and was informed that they all had accepted the appointment, and would endeavor to discharge their duties faithfully and promptly, and would report to Council from time to time.

Committee appointed to issue proposals for building a Sewer, and prepare plans and specifications, reported that they had attended to their duties, and laid before Council, plans and specifications for their approval. Report accepted and committee continued.

On motion, Resolved, That the committee on Sewer be hereby authorized to contract for the building of said Sewer, in accordance with the plans and specifications agreed upon, and to pay one third part of the cost thereof when one half of the work is done, one third part thereof when the contract is completed and taken off the contractors hands, and the remaining one third part or balance in full, in sixty days thereafter.

Bills were presented from C. B. Sink, McCrum & Dern, Philip Dempsey, James Karns, J. A. McDowell and John Smith, for material furnished, hauling stone and other materials, and printing for the use of the Borough, which were read, and orders granted for each respectively.

Orders were also granted to each of the following named persons for work done, and labor performed in repairing streets for the month of June last, viz: John McClelland late Supervisor, Jesse Groves, Peter Smith, Thomas Rice, Daniel Coyle, John Davis, Wm. McLaughlin, and Wm. Ferguson.

On motion, Resolved, That all persons, or lot owners upon whom an assessment was laid for the opening and extension of Catharine street, be notified to pay the several amounts so assessed to Wm. C. McCormick, Chief Burgess, on or before the 15th day of August next, after which time they will be left in the hands of a proper officer for collection according to law.

On motion, Resolved, That the "Borough Council" are willing to pay to the "Altoona Gas & Water Co," the amount of the original cost of the fire plugs now put in, or which they may hereafter order to be put in for the use of the Borough, in three equal annual payments as proposed to said "Gas and Water Co.," at a late meeting, but positively decline the payment of any charges now or hereafter for the use of water in case of fire, and that the Chief Burgess be requested to send a copy of this resolution to the President of said Gas and Water Co.

On motion Resolved, That A. A. Smyth and R. Greenwood, be a committee for the purpose of having Gas introduced into the Council room, and to procure suitable blinds for the windows

On motion Council adjourned to meet on the first Thursday evening in August next at 7 o'clock, P. M —Extract from the minutes.

ANOTHER "MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE."—Mr. J. W. Dutcher, formerly of this place, but who has latterly been residing in Greensburg, Westmoreland Co., left his home, on the 26th of June, for the purpose of going into Clearfield county, to look for a place where he might establish himself as a jeweler. His wife, not hearing from him for some days, became alarmed and, on making inquiries, learned that her faithless husband had left Clearfield, on the evening of the 1st of July, in the direction of Brookville, in company with a woman named Martha Potts, who had formerly resided in his family as a domestic, and who is well known in this neighborhood. She also learned that, previous to leaving Clearfield, Dutcher had bought this woman a handsome bonnet and a silk dress, and made her many other presents. Mrs. Dutcher is now in this place, and in the deepest distress. Her heartless husband had left her entirely destitute, with a young child, and a prospect of soon becoming again a mother. A mark should be placed upon him wherever he goes, and editors will confer a favor upon his wife by noticing this article. Dutcher is a jeweller by trade, dresses well, and is rather prepossessing in his appearance. He has jewelry with him for sale. The girl is rather stout, with black hair, and large black eyes. Any information of her husband's whereabouts will be gratefully received by Mrs. Dutcher, and, if he will return, she is willing to forgive him everything.—Tyrone Star, 14th inst.

☞ The Protestant Church erected at Gallitzin, on the summit of the Allegheny Mountain, will be dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, on Saturday, July 28th. Services will commence at 10½ o'clock A. M. A number of ministers, of different denominations will be present.

On behalf of the Committee,
THOS. B. GILSON.

Those of our people who desire to attend the dedication of the above church can go up in the Express Train in the morning and return by the evening train. It would be a most pleasant trip, and our mountain friends will, we know, pay all the attention to visitors.

POPULATION OF ALTOONA.—The local reporter of the Harrisburg Patriot and Union says:—

"Altoona is growing. Not so rapidly as it did a few years ago, but the improvements making now are more substantial than heretofore. The census marshal has concluded taking the census, but, under a mistaken idea that it would be a violation of law, refuses to make a statement. We were given to understand, however, that the population does not quite reach 5,000. This is less than the people of the place claimed—still it is large for a town only a little over ten years old."

Yes, Altoona is growing, and that too as rapidly as ever it did, and the buildings are more substantial. As to the population, we have not made inquiry of the Marshal in relation thereto, but think it does not lack much, if any, of 5,000, in Altoona proper, and if we take in the adjoining village of Loudonsville, and other places outside the borough limits, which go to make up the town, together with our floating population, which is larger than that of any other town in the country, we have, as we heretofore claimed, a population of 6,000. This is certainly doing well for a town only a little over ten years old.

IMPORTANT SURGICAL OPERATION.—Dangers of Administering Chloroform—Supposed Death of the Patent—The Galvanic Battery as a Last resort—The Battery has the desired effect and the Patient slowly recovers—Happy finality of the whole affair.—One of the most dangerous surgical operations known in the "vocabulary of materia medica" or the practice of a "regular physician," was performed upon an athletic specimen of our mountain rangers, on Friday afternoon last, by Dr. D. R. Good and W. S. Bittner, D. S., which resulted in a manner highly satisfactory to the professional gentleman, and fully sustained their high reputation as skilful surgeons. The whole time occupied in the dangerous undertaking was not over five minutes, although it required some length of time to revive the patient. To get to the "switch tail" of the affair at once, the operation consisted in administering chloroform to a rattlesnake, which measured over four feet, and relieving him of his fangs while under its influence. Having administered a little too heavy a dose, he straightened out, and only came to in answer to an application of the galvanic battery.

HOW TO DO UP SHIRT BOSOMS.—With our cotemporary of the Harrisburg Telegraph we have often been asked by ladies to state by what process the gloss on new linens, shirt bosoms, &c., is produced. Our cotemporary gives the following recipe, which is not expensive, or the ingredients hard to obtain, therefore ladies can try it:—Take two ounces of fine white gum arabic powder—put it in a pitcher, and pour on a pint or more of boiling water, according to the degree of strength you desire—and then having covered it, let it stand all night—in the morning pour it carefully from the dregs into a clean bottle, cork it, and keep it for use. A tablespoonful of gum water stirred in a pint of starch, made in the usual manner, will give to lawn, either white or printed, a look of newness, when nothing else can restore them, after being washed.

INHUMAN.—On Monday afternoon last, which, it will be remembered, was oppressively warm, we observed an inhuman chunk of humanity, about 16 years old, driving at a smart canter, up Virginia street, a team of three horses attached to a wagon on which there was a large load of hay. To have driven the horses at a slow walk would have been sufficient, as they looked somewhat jaded, but the idea of "putting them through" at a gallop was inhuman—not to say anything worse—and the boy who did it deserved an effectual application of the article which he so brutally applied to his horses, and should afterwards have been chained to a hand-cart and made to perform a task equal to that imposed upon them. A boy who would thus wantonly abuse dumb brutes under his charge would do worse.

DON'T NEGLECT A COUGH.—Of all the diseases to which we are exposed, there is none more deserving of our immediate attention, than what is usually termed a "cough or cold," for the reason that if not arrested, they are apt to run into some fixed disease of some of the air passages, or pulmonary tissues, ending in consumption, or incurable bronchitis. The way to prevent this, is to get a bottle of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup, made by that gentleman, at his great drug and medicine store, Pittsburgh, Pa. The preparation of Dr. Keyser has received the recommendation of hosts of respectable persons in Pittsburgh, where it is made, and will not fail to cure most incipient cases of pulmonary disease. Sold here by G. W. Kessler.

MERITED PRAISE FROM HIGH AUTHORITY.—In a recent Lecture before the Students of the Iron City College, of Pittsburgh, Pa., by the distinguished capitalist and financier, J. M. Schermerhorn, Esq., President of the Syracuse and Binghampton R. R., the lecturer said "that he knew of no place in the country that afforded such advantages to young men as the Iron City College; and that a course of training in that Institution was worth at least $5,000 to every one of its graduates."

Pittsburgh Gazette, June 22, 1860.

GOOD WHEAT.—On Saturday evening last, Mr. Samuel McGlathery placed upon our table one dozen heads of wheat, which he had taken from one of his fields, which we think are hard to beat. One of the heads contains one hundred and two grains. The other heads, though not so large, are well filled. Twenty acres of such grain would be sufficient to keep a family over winter. We have seen several notices of good wheat lately, but none that will beat this. Can it be done?

DIME NOVELS.—Fettinger, at the Literary Emporium, No. 1, Altoona House, is in regular receipt of the Dime Novels, issued semi-monthly by J. B. Beadle & Co., New York. Good novels are selected and put up in convenient form for carrying with you and reading upon the cars, or while travelling in any conveyance. Their cheapness brings them within the reach of every one who wishes anything of the kind. Only 10 cents each, and each complete in itself.

☞ A few evenings since, while we were absent from home, a young lady called at our (the Senior's) residence and handed to our better-half a neat and mysterious looking little package, with the request to hand over to us. Curiosity "they say," is one of the chief characteristics of the gentler sex, and our "better-half" did not prove an exception to the race, in this instance. And is it to be wondered at that she did not, considering the source from whence the package came. Well, in a short space of time she had solved the contents of the package, but whence it came remained a mystery, only to be solved by us, if at all. Neatly putting it all to rights again, she patiently (if a woman could be patient under such circumstances) awaited our coming. We came in due time, but had on time to get seated ere we were plied with a number of vague questions in relation to our young lady acquaintances, the meaning of which we could not divine. We thought there was "a cat in the bag," and fearing it might jump out when we were not looking for it, we ventured to ask an explanation of this close chatechising, when the mysterious package was handed us, the circumstances connected with its presentation detailed, and we in turn asked to explain. Now here was a dilemma. What should we do? Should we say that we knew all about it, but refuse to give the name of the donor? or, should we deny all knowledge of the affair? Either horn was sharp, but one of them we must ride; and just then we remembered that

"Trifles light as air
Are to the jealous confirmations strong
As proofs of Holy Writ;"

therefore something must be done soon, as delay was dangerous in this case, consequently we chose the latter, which was the true one.—Whether this proved satisfactory or not is enough for us to know, suffice it to say that the package contained a neat silk neck-tie, for which the unknown donor has our thanks, although she did get us into rather an unpleasant predicament.

☞ Among the visitors who have recently favored our town with their presence, we are happy to notice Mr. J. F. Coonley, attached to the well known photographic establishment of E. Anthony, 501 Broadway, New York city. Mr. Coonley has been for several days past engaged in taking some of the remarkable views immediately on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and has extended his visits to localities of old time interest, off, but still in the immediate vicinity of, the Road. Among other interesting localities he has taken pictures of Logan Spring, Sinking Valley, and "the old Lead Mines," which pictures will, eventually, form illustrations for one of Harper's Monthly Magazine articles. It is by this great attention to truth, and perfect disregard of trouble, that the Harpers have so successfully maintained their Magazine above all competition. We must also congratulate E. Anthony upon the addition to his splendid collection of stereoscopic landscapes, some of the finest in the Juniata Valley.

THE TOMATO AS FOOD.—Dr. Bennett, a professor of some celebrity, considers the tomato an invaluable article of diet, and ascribes to it various important medical properties. First: That the tomato is one of the most powerful aperients to the liver and other organs, where calomel is indicated; it is probably one of the most effective and least harmful remedial agents known to the profession. Second: That a chemical extract will be obtained from it that will supercede the use of calomel in the cure of disease. Third: That he has successfully treated diarrhœa with this article alone.—Fourth: That when used as an article of diet it is an almost sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion. Fifth: That it should be constantly used for daily food, either cooked or raw, or in the form of catsup; it is the most healthy article now in use.

THE BERRY SEASON.—We are now fairly in the midst of the berry season. Dozens of bushels of whortleberries and raspberries are brought into town every day, the former gathered on the mountains and hills around town, and the latter brought over from "Camberry" on the freight trains. They are all readily disposed of at 5 cents per quart. The blackberries are now ripe, and we shall soon have them in abundance as we understand the crop is unusually large this season.

POLITICAL MEETINGS.—A mass meeting of the Peoples' Party, of this county, will be held in the Court House, in Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday evening next. Hon. A. G. Curtin and Hon. S. S. Blair will address the meeting.

The Tyrone Star announces a Bell and Everett meeting to be held at the same place on Wednesday evening.

☞ Mr. R. Beacham, the new Superintendent of the Gas and Water Works, took charge of the works on the 15th inst. Mr. Thos. S. Francis, the retiring Superintendent, carries with him the best wishes of all who made his acquaintance, for his future success. In his line of business he has no superiors and few equals, as the works in this place, constructed under his direction, fully attest.

NO SUNDAY TRAINS.—We are pleased to observe that the Penn'a Rail Road Company have suspended the running of Freight Trains on Sunday. This arrangement will no doubt be welcomed by those who were employed upon the trains which run on Sunday, as they will now have that day for rest.

☞ The letter of our Hollidaysburg correspondent arrived too late for insertion in our last issue; and as it refers mainly to the manner in which the Fourth was spent in that place, its publication at this late day would not prove interesting. Hope we may hear from him often, but a little earlier in the week.

☞ The magnificent service of silver ware intended to be presented to Thos. A. Scott, Esq., can be seen at the Logan House, at any time to-morrow, (Friday,) 29th inst. Those who wish to get a sight of it can do so by calling as above on that day, as the exhibition is free to all.

☞ Fresh Oysters, large and fat, can be had at any time at Taylor's Saloon, next door to the Bank, together with all kinds of ice cool drinks, ice cream, &c. Call and see.

A RAILROAD INCIDENT.—The Chambersburg Repository, in speaking of Col. Thos. A. Scott, Vice President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, incidentally gives the following:—

"A gentleman from Mercersburg, and his wife, in very feeble health, were visiting friends in Philadelphia, when, a few weeks since, the lady, whom all her relatives supposed could scarcely withstand the fatigues of the trip, desired to be brought home to die. The opinion of eminent physicians was, that if her home was on the line of the Pennsylvania or some other railroad leading out of Philadelphia, so that she would not be compelled to change from car to car, and if a bed could be placed in a car she might live to reach her place of destination; but if she were to be obliged to be removed as often as there were different trains of cars between the two points, she could not survive the fatigue of the journey.

"These facts were communicated to Col. T. A. Scott, when, without the least begging, coaxing, or solicitation, he had a first-class car prepared, hauled to within one square of where the lady was staying, and she taken to the car, placed comfortably in a bed, and, without the molestation of strangers, with the whole given up to the accommodation of the sick lady, and her husband and mother, had her conveyed from Philadelphia to Greencastle, without having to leave her bed in the car once."

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS & IRON

An aperient and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mesenteration, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.—Invalids so long bed ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from a protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested by Female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and the complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise, for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affictions of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and exerheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly afflicting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating the pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW, AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND FEMALE PHYSICIAN, presents to the attention of mothers her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.
which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums reducing all inflammation will allay pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the Bowels.
Depend upon it mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in thousands of cases.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.—We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—Do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
Sold by Druggists throughout the world, and by G. W. Kessler and A. Roush, druggists, Altoona. Price 25 cents per bottle.

THE
ONLY PREPARATION
Having Proofs so strong and direct as to
EXPEL THE DOUBTS
OF ALL.
For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the following:—
Oak Grove, S. C. June 24th, 1859.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test:—
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road-side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally dictated in every prescription advanced.
These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.
You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, very respectfully, ☞ J. WRIGHT, M. D.
Office of the Jeffersonian, Philippi, Va., Dec. 12th, 1858.
Dear sir.—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford; and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,
THOMPSON SURGHINOR.
DR. WOOD: Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color: about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
S. THERRIEN.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

MARRIAGE GUIDE—BEING A private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our system, and the production or prevention of offspring, including all the new discories never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings.—All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or in postage stamps Address DR. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

☞ AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of either of Dr. Young's Books, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health and possibly your life.

CONSUMPTION AND ASTHMA CURED.

DR. H. JAMES,

Discovered, while in the West Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. His child was cured, and is now alive and well. Desirous of benefiting his fellow mortals, he will send to those who wish it, the recipe containing full directions for making and successfully using this remedy, free, on receipt of their names with stamp for return postage. When received, take it to G. W. Kessler, Druggist, Altoona. There is not a single symptom of Consumption which it does not at once take hold of and dissipate. Night sweats, peevishness, irritation of the nerves, failure of memory, difficult expectoration, sharp pains in the lungs, sore throat, chilly sensations, nausea at the stomach, inaction of the bowels, wasting away of the muscles. MOTHERS

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S

INFANTILE CORDIAL,

and why? because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains

NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE

of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP, also, for softening the gums, reducing inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being in entire accordance it is used with unfailing success in all cases of CONVULSION OR OTHER FITS. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which all other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Prepared only by
